

GEORGE WYATT,
Plaintiff,
v.
G. ABBOTT, et al.
Defendants.

May 31, 2019

For the reasons stated below, the Court orders that this action be dismissed.

Wyatt has not paid the $400 filing fee. Because of his litigation history, he is ineligible to proceed without prepayment of the fee unless he is under imminent danger of serious physical injury. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g); Wyatt v. State of Texas, C.A. No. 18-cv-00041, ECF #18 (S.D. Tex. Mar. 21, 2018) (collecting cases in which an action by Wyatt was dismissed as frivolous, malicious, or for failure to state a claim). Nothing in Wyatt's filing suggests that he is in danger of serious physical injury.

Under 28 U.S.C. § 1915A, prisoner complaints in civil actions that seek redress from a governmental entity or officers or employees of a governmental entity are subject to a preliminary screening. This statute authorizes a federal court to dismiss a complaint sua sponte if the claims therein are frivolous, malicious, fail to state a claim on which relief may be granted, or seek monetary relief against a defendant who is immune from such relief. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(b).

Here, Wyatt's claim is patently frivolous. Accordingly, the Court orders that this action be DISMISSED.

SO ORDERED.
